

Dr. F. J. UPHAM,
DENTIST
CROSSVILLE, TENN.
DORTON & BURNETT,
ATTORNEYS
First rooms in Bank Building.
CROSSVILLE, TENN.

Sherman N. Smith
Lawyer
Crossville, Tennessee.

CHANCERY LAND SALE.

In the cause of W. B. Andrews vs May Turner et al, No. 1334, in the Chancery Court at Crossville, a decree was rendered requiring the Clerk and Master to sell two tracts of land in Grassy Cove, Tennessee. The said tracts are fully described in decrees of said Court and said cause and appear of record in Minute Book I, pages 146, 147, 148, at which reference is had for a full description.

Said land will be sold on Saturday, January 25, 1919, for cash in hand on day of sale to the highest bidder at the Court House door in Crossville, Tennessee.

This December 27th, 1918.

I. E. Thurman,
Clerk and Master,
By C. G. Black,
1-1-4t. Deputy Clerk and Master.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE.

Ollie Stanley Millard
vs
Sam Millard.

It appearing from the petition in this cause, which is sworn to, that the residence of the Respondent is not known and cannot be ascertained upon diligent inquiry, it is ordered that publication be made for four consecutive weeks in the Crossville Chronicle, a newspaper published in Cumberland county, Tennessee, requiring the said Respondent to make defense to said petition at the office of the Clerk and Master at the Court House in said county, on, or before, the first Monday in February, 1919, or the said petition will be taken for confessed and the cause set for hearing ex parte.

December 30, 1918.

I. E. Thurman,
Clerk and Master.

CRESTON

Wm. Todd, of Buhl, Idaho, is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dixon and family were visiting in Nashville Tuesday.

Ollie Linkous went to Monterey Wednesday.

Robert Wright, of White county, who has been visiting his uncle, returned home Wednesday. He was accompanied by his cousin, William Wright.

J. M. T. Caudill and family left Monday for West Virginia.

McKinley Lowe and Ray Taylor spent Christmas in Monterey.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cox spent Sunday with their son, Bud Cox.

Miss Emma Taber went to Crossville Sunday to attend school.

Ross Norman, of Clarkrange, passed through here Saturday on his way to Monterey.

Miss Blanche Green is visiting Knoxville and other points.

E. A. Smith and family spent Christmas in Harrison.

Miss Mabel Jones passed through here Sunday on her way to Crossville to attend school.

Dec. 30.

Rosebud.

WOODSTOCK
BAIL BEARING—STANDARD—WRITING—SHIRT

6 in One

The Leading Features of the Leading Machine all harmoniously combined in one machine. New Trouble-Free Writing Machine of the First Quality—in which you will find your own favorite feature of your own favorite typewriter, and the others besides.

Improved—Simplified—Modernized
Simple—Artistic—Durable—Efficient—Standard—42 Key—Single Shift—Ball Bearing—Quiet—Visible—Soft Touch—Light Action.
In the Woodstock
You Will Find

Every time-tested worth-while feature which you like in the machine you are used to, and you will also find the favorite features of the other standard makes which you wish your machine had. Yet in the Woodstock you will find the aggregation of high point features much improved and simplified, to fit the touch, the person, the mood, in a way that no other typewriter does—(The best operators say this).
Only a close-up view, an actual touch and trial of this excellent typewriter can convince.
Investigate by all means—We are at your service. Let us show you how easy it is to try one; to own one. Phone Central 555; call up—call in—write.

Woodstock Typewriter Company,
Chicago

A. B. RECTOR, Agent.

We take pleasure in thanking our customers, one and all, for their generous patronage during the past year, and wish for you happiness and prosperity during the year to come.

We are starting in the New Year confidently hoping to sell you more goods, at a closer margin of profit than ever before. Don't forget to come and see us when in town.

W. T. HALE.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, The Sunday School of Grassy Cove has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret of the death of Virgil Ford, late a member of the Sunday School.

Virgil Ford was born June 19, 1888, and died the fall of 1918 in France, of pneumonia fever.

He enlisted in the U. S. army July 28, 1918, and went to Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., for training and from there to France, where he died in a few days.

Virgil was a good young man in the community and always ready to help. He was a true patriot and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ford. Such men as Virgil are the honor of our people and the hope of our country. That when such a man is needed he is found and that when found he receives public recognition and applause. Here lies the safety and honor of society, here lies the strength of the republic. Upon the national birch we tender this offering of our sons.

He loved all parts of his country and all classes of humanity. He gave his life as a sacrifice for all.

He is one among the thousands that have given his life for home and country and the flag that he loved. When he left home he said to his aged parents: "Don't worry about me, I am going to obey my country's call," and he went to Europe to defend the United States of America against the most powerful monarch the world has ever known and there upon the shores of the Atlantic ocean he gave his life, under the beautiful sunlit skies in the land of France. He has sunk to rest with trust in God and in hope of heaven. God has said: "Whosoever loseth his life shall find it."

There is something admirable in that ceremony of the soldier, in which he accompanies his comrade to the last resting place: first the dead march, the salute fired over his grave and then the return with flying flags and rejoicing music to the accustomed rounds of duty. So it seems that every American citizen should pause here, amidst these busy hours, to bow his head at this new made grave. I tender, with you, my respectful sympathies to those whom I know are bereaved beyond the power of man to administer consolation. I give, with you, my sympathies to the memory of this brave and true young American soldier, who was worthy of his state and country, and whose patriotism should stimulate us in our appointed tasks.

We are all thankful to know that Virgil Ford professed faith in Christ before he sunk to rest upon the shores of the Atlantic ocean in France, where he was led by the hand of God, by the still waters into green pastures over on the sunny banks of Sweet Deliverance.

G. W. Davenport.

MERIDIAN

Nearly every body around here has the "flu."

Lawson Hedgecoth went to Clifty Saturday and returned home Sunday.

Dr. V. L. Lewis was called here Wednesday to see people that have the "flu."

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Dec. 15th and took away their daughter Flossy. She had only been sick one week with influenza. She was 16 years of age, just in the bloom of life. She was a bright, intelligent young lady and she had such a kind and lovable disposition that it caused her to win many friends. She seemed to be the favorite among her many friends. She leaves a father, mother, four sisters and three brothers besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. The family has the deep sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Crx made a business trip to Crab Orchard Thursday.

Will Ray went to Crab Orchard Friday.

The pike work is about over here.

Oscar Smith returned home after spending the week in Dorton.

Mrs. Grace Flynn returned home after a three weeks' stay at Clifty.

Joe Hedgecoth went to Crab Orchard Monday.

Dec. 23. Vernis.

GENESIS

Christmas passed off quietly and peaceably in this vicinity so far as is known to the writer.

There was a Christmas tree at the Shiloh school house Tuesday night and a nice time was had. Hobart Turner played Santa Claus and took the presents off the tree and distributed them. Augustus Turner had charge of the program.

Perry Dixon made a business trip to Crossville the first of last week.

Dr. A. J. McClarnay and son, John, of Crossville, passed through here one day last week.

J. A. Turner and son Elijah went to Crossville Wednesday of last week.

Augustus and May Turner are at home from school at Crossville for the holidays.

A very young gentleman made his appearance in the home of W. R. McCoy on Dec. 16.

Wm. Potter and daughter Elva made a business trip to Crossville Wednesday of last week.

Charles Rysta writes home to his family that he is liking Sioux City fine but doesn't say when he expects to start for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dixon made a business trip to Crossville Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCoy made a business trip to Crossville Monday.

Joe Henry and his uncle, E. D. Henry, went to Crossville last Tuesday.

Dec. 27. May Bee.

CRESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bristow have sold out and they will visit two or three weeks with relatives and friends before going to Ft. Worth, Texas, where they will make their future home. They have many friends here who will regret to see them go, but who will wish for them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Mrs. Sarah Copeland, of Mayland, has been here for the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer.

Mrs. Chas. Spencer spent last week with her parents at Pomona.

William Todd, of Buhl, Idaho, and Miss Florence Bowden were married here Tuesday. They have many friends here who will wish for them a long and happy married life.

Mrs. J. W. Linkous and children were dinner guests at Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Duncan's Christmas.

A. G. Smith and family spent Christmas in Rockwood and Harrison.

Miss Blanch Green is visiting friends in Knoxville this week.

Morris Goss was here Christmas on business.

Mrs. R. L. Duncan spent the week-end with relatives and friends in Crossville.

Dec. 28. Violet.

POMONA

Mrs. Sarah Parmeroy Rugg, of Brookline, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. F. H. Washburn. Mrs. Rugg is the author of several books. She leaves Wednesday to visit the settlement school at Gatlinburg, of which she is one of the directors.

Misses Eva and Johanna Selby were the guests during the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Stone.

Rev. Robert Hall conducted services at the church here Sunday.

The Christmas tree at the Congregational church was an occasion of much pleasure for the young folks. All were remembered by a generous Santa, and went away happy.

W. J. Barnes, who has been in business in Chattanooga for the last year, visited homefolks last week.

Silas Matthews celebrated his 83rd birthday Dec. 22nd with a dinner party.

Mr. Shoemaker, the piano tuner, is in Pomona this week.

Miss Mattie Norris, of Winesap spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Adin Benedict, Jr.

Dec. 30. O. B.

ERASMUS

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis were visiting at C. Davis' Sunday.

Debb Smith and family were visiting at John Lewis' last week.

Mrs. L. F. Tucker and son Tom went to Clifty Thursday.

Emma Brunson, who has been going to school at Crossville, spent the holidays with homefolks.

Arthur Wyatt, who has been in camp for the past few months, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Laura Driver.

Frank Driver is visiting here. Mrs. Mary Bell Parke has been visiting in Crab Orchard.

Ed VanWinkle came in on a furlough and spent the holidays with homefolks. He returned to Camp Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Bell and children visited at Lewis Bolins' Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Scarbrough were visiting at Allen Driver's Sunday.

Violet and Della Tucker spent Sunday at Arthur Davis'.

Mark Tucker went to Crossville Sunday, where he will enter school.

There are several cases of "flu" here.

Clint Tucker made a trip to town Sunday.

Ruth Davis has gone to Nashville. Clay Lewis is visiting at Lantana this week.

Wade and Mark Tucker attended the Christmas tree at Thomas Springs Wednesday.

Maad Lewis is on the sick list.

S. G. Scarbrough and son Frank went to Eastland Sunday to see his father, who is sick.

Dec. 30. Namelese.

PLEASANT HILL

This best of Christmases, which began for us with the Friday night celebration and gifts before the pupils left for home, found its consummation in the community Christmas party at the Academy on Christmas Eve.

The committee on decoration had made the stage beautiful and bright with nelmlock and glittering tinsel, and two wonderful trees stood on either side, loaded with gifts for the friends and neighbors who filled the gaily lighted hall.

A little play presented by Miss Grover's pupils of the primary class, and the singing of a Christmas hymn, were followed by the distribution of presents. The committee on decorating gave us a feast for the eye, while the friends in the north had made sure that each one present would be remembered. Every little girl had her desired doll baby, while the boys and the grown ups fared as well, and fun and merriment ran high.

Prof. Wharton just returned from a week-end in Knoxville, announced the gifts, and a group of the young people saw that each reached its destination.

Christmas Day was celebrated with a fine turkey dinner at noon; the evening we spent as guests of our principal and his wife about a jolly little tree in their home; with many a stunt and a story and deep enjoyment of their hospitality.

Miss Dannel is spending the vacation at her home in Grandview.

Mrs. Albert Smith, with Miss Winifred and Gay Smith, are visiting in Birmingham, Ala.

Miss Dodge left Saturday for Knoxville and Dr. Wharton on Monday for Chattanooga.

Dec. 30. X.

NOTICE OF INSOLVENCY

To the creditors of John Randolph, deceased: By the order of the clerk of the County Court of Cumberland County, Tennessee, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against the estate of John Randolph, deceased, to appear and file the same with the clerk of said court authenticated in the manner prescribed by law on or before the First day of May, 1919. The insolvency of said estate having been suggested, any claim not filed on or before said date will be forever barred both in law and equity.

This, December 11, 1918.

J. E. BURNETT, Administrator of John Randolph, deceased.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught, Relief From Head-ache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theodor's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theodor's the original and genuine. E 75

AMENA.

Suppose this was your little girl or your sister? How quickly you would help her! It is Amena, one of the four hundred thousand fatherless, motherless, friendless orphans in Armenia who are reaching out to America, across the seas, for aid. They are hungry. They want, not luxuries such as are bourses here, but plain bread. They are hungry.

See those feet. Every bone shows. Look at those clothes and then look at yours. Suppose your left pocket hung down like that. You would not be asked to put your hand into it and contribute to Tennessee's $300,000 relief fund of the American Committee for Relief in the Near East. No, indeed. If it was you whose clothes were in shreds, and if this was your daughter, do you not think that Amena would not be glad to give even that piece of white or near white cloth over her chest that looks like an apron upside down?

She also would be glad for her father to help you and yours if her father was living. But he was tied to a horse by the Turks and dragged to death and Amena was left to pick up her food, literally from the street, and to find some nook between buildings where she might sleep. Not the sleep that your daughters know or your friends' little youngsters enjoy. But a troubled, dream-ridden jerking slumber that is neither restful nor beneficial.

Can you distinguish that cunning look in her eyes? She begot that from this life of hiding and doubtless stealing. An influence of love and kindness, such as you are asked to give by means of your money, will bring back the natural childish charm like that of our own little girls.

"Do not imagine the case of Amena a rare one," Mr. E. S. Burnett, county chairman, said today. "There are hundreds of thousands of little girls, and little boys too, who need our help. We must remember that although Armenia is almost on the other side of the earth from us, we are just as much responsible for the deaths by starvation of these people as we would be if they were our own. We have the means and the opportunity and it is up to Cumberland county to show that it has a heart. We will be repaid a thousand fold if only by the thankful prayers of those unfortunate victims of the Turkish monsters."

GRASSY COVE

Grassy Cove has been welcoming home some of her soldier boys during the past two weeks: Oscar Kemmer, Clinton Bristow, John Gist, Jr., and True Loden. We are more than proud of them all, coming back with clean records and with their honorable discharges.

One of them, True Loden, by his own unaided effort, worked his way from private to sergeant during his six months in service.

While rejoicing with those whose boys have returned our hearts go out in sympathy to the bereaved ones whose boys will not get back: Virgil Ford, Mose Wilson and William Godsey, all who gave their lives that we at home might be safe—we will never forget them.

Dec. 30.

XX.